Providing organization
Salvation Army Fairfax Corps, The

The Salvation Army Fairfax Corps/Community Center is the focal point for activities and programs tailored to the needs of the Fairfax community. The Corps has worship opportunities as well as music, character building programs, educational and social activities for adults and youth. In addition, we provide basic emergency services and referrals for those in need through our social services office. Also provides Emergency/Disaster services within Fairfax County. These services are onsite feeding, emotional/spiritual care and long-term casework.
